Advice to someone entering the field

Nothing is too small to save. Listen to everyone on the team and put their ideas into action. Everyone has ownership; everyone should take savings and improvement personally.

Chief Engineer
15 year tenure with C&W Services

Whatever you do, do the best you can and take ownership of the job.

Surround yourself with a team that is effective, efficient and productive, in every regard, especially process. And always communicate!

Chief Electrician
40 year tenure with C&W Services

To put it simply, be visible. Be visible to your clients, to your staff and within your organization.
